The RED HOT SUMMER TOUR show at Jacobs Well, scheduled for Saturday 1st April, has been postponed due to rising floodwaters. The show has been rescheduled to Saturday 29th April 2017 with the same line-up – ICEHOUSE, James Reyne, Daryl Braithwaite, Shannon Noll, Dragon & Pseudo Echo – with the same performance times.

Promoter Duane McDonald, working under the advice of emergency services, said due to rising floodwaters and evacuations in the immediate and surrounding areas, the show cannot proceed. “Road closures due to flooding are in place with waters expected to rise over the next 48 hours,” he says. “It is unsafe for the event to proceed and our first priority is the safety of our audiences attending. We hope everyone stays safe. We thank everyone for their understanding and look forward to seeing them all on April 29.”

Tickets will be automatically transferred to the new date on April 29. Any ticketholders who are unable to attend the new date will need to return their tickets to the point of purchase by 5pm, Friday 7th April for a full refund.
